

St. Joseph Elementary School fostered a safe environment for me to freely live my love for Jesus. My Catholic education supported and enhanced my family's faith and values, while providing me with a strong academic foundation. I am so grateful that my son is now nurturing his faith and advancing his education in a positive, well-rounded learning environment that St. Joseph School provides.

Submitted by alumna
Renée Burzuk